Dear Partners,

This letter is directed at IDVC shareholders. I concur with the comments related to SingleShot made by Eric in his latest update on IDVC. I and other SSE executives have no knowledge of internal matters between IDVC and its shareholders, and we don't wish to.

When we all first met and discussed the idea of having IDVC handle marketing and distribution and other tasks that SSE needed, I was thrilled to be associated. Having the credibility and exposure of an experienced US publicly listed company for such a young venture as SSE was the answer I was looking for.

After several months of working together, I can tell you that virtually none of the major milestones we have reached would have been possible without the participation of Eric, Cyril and Stan. I am disappointed that we are not yet able to close the transaction that we agreed on, but we work together as if it were.

With many thanks to IDVC, we are fully funded, our patents and other IP are legally protected, our corporate structure is solid, and we have great partnerships with some of the largest players in our industry.

There is no doubt that the relationship will continue for a long time in the future, as we get closer to deciding on doing an IPO of our own. I have always been very generous with people who have helped me, and IDVC will be no different.

We are pleased that a few IDVC stockholders have become stockholders of SSE by buying out some of my original partners' stock. We look forward to continued active involvement by all management and shareholders, and we hope you all enjoy this journey.

Sincerely,
